dock10

First broadcast on 5 January 1970, A Question Of Sport has gone on to become a British television institution, and is now the longest-continuously running quiz show on British TV. Sue Barker hosts this special edition celebrating the show's 50th anniversary filmed at dock10.

Regular team captains Matt Dawson and Phil Tufnell are joined by a stellar line up of guests. Former A Question of Sport team captain, Ally McCoist, returns to join Phil's team, alongside Rugby League legend Martin Offiah.

Joining Matt on his team are Dame Laura Davies, Britain's most prolific female golfer, and Britain's most successful gymnast, Beth Tweddle.

This one-off edition will test the teams sporting knowledge on the past five decades of sport, as well as revisit some of the show's funniest moments.

An hour-long documentary, A Question Of Sport At 50, will also be shown, looking back at the history of the show with sporting greats and celebrity fans sharing their memories.
